Code of Ethics to Check Malpractices and Plagiarism in Research

Preamble:

Besides being an academic institution, focusing on quality education, Agarwal PG College is also actively involved in research. The college has research and development cell which along with the Head of the Institution looks into the planning and execution of encouraging and enhancing research amongst faculty members and students.

Objectives:

- 1) To create conducive research environment.
- 2) To promote research culture amongst teachers and students.
- 3) To create awareness on research related ethical requirements of the college.
- 4) To enhance research paper publications and presentations.
- 5) To encourage faculty members to obtain research projects/funds and consultancy works.

Guidelines on Research Ethics

As academic and Research institution, the college has formulated guidelines on research ethics which governs the conduct of researchers on the campus. While carrying out research it is important to adhere to ethical principles in order to protect the dignity, rights and welfare of researchers.

One of the most common practices of breaching the policy of academic integrity is the act of Plagiarism. All teachers of Agarwal PG college are expected to be conscious of plagiarism as academic dishonesty and to work toward avoiding plagiarism in academics and research. Faculty members will be governed by the University Grants Commission regulations, 2018 (Promotion of Academic Integrity and Prevention of Plagiarism in Higher Educational Institution). It is very important to curb plagiarism and conform to the requirements of quality of research Publications.

Teachers/researchers are advised to refrain from resorting to self-plagiarism. Reproduction in part or whole of one's own previously published work without adequate citation and proper acknowledgement and claiming the most recent work as new and original for any academic advantage amounts to text-recycling which is not acceptable.

Researchers are encouraged to publish the research findings in peer reviewed journals listed by Consortium for Academic and Research Ethics (CARE) of UGC. The UGC CARE list can be accessed from <https://ugccare.unipune.ac.in/apps1/home/index>

Upon Publication/presentation of the paper faculty members are expected to submit information of the same with DOI by emailing the same to the IQAC. Researchers are required to give institutional affiliation for all research publications obtained as a result of work done by them as faculty members of Agrawal PG College.

Registration of every faculty member in ORCID is essential which enable them to obtain information of citation and H index as and when asked by the college for the purpose of NIRF and NAAC.
